

Empowering Indigenous Communities Through Education and Collaboration

As part of NAIDOC week celebrations, the Facilities Management Association of Australia South Australian Committee is hosting the inaugural First Nations Expo & Networking Event themed 'Empowering Indigenous Communities Through Education and Collaboration'.

Being held on the traditional lands of the Kurna People, this important event provides an opportunity for Indigenous Owned Business to connect with corporate, government and local buyers & showcase their products and services to build business capabilities & awareness and to discuss market drivers & environs impacting the Indigenous business sector.

The event will also include presentations from distinguished Indigenous leaders sharing their personal journeys and insights into the importance of empowering Indigenous Communities through education and collaboration followed by post event networking drinks and canapes to continue the conversation.

Partnering with the FMA at this event will assist strengthening relationships between Industry and Indigenous communities & enhanced collaboration with Indigenous businesses and industry leaders.

Please support this culturally significant event by sponsoring or exhibiting.
