

Future FM National Summit Series:2022

FM Summits are full day events that include thought leader presentations, expert panels and networking time to keep the conversation going. With tea breaks, working lunch and post event networking drinks provided, these summits are held regularly and are a not to be missed opportunity for anyone in FM to stay informed on key Industry updates.

Partnering with FMA at these summits provide exceptional opportunities to actively promote and connect directly with key FM decision makers and professional while also showing your support for the growing facilities management industry.

Summits include:

Compliance & Regulations in FM 	Explore the latest in regulations and compliance requirements across all types of facilities in Australia. By the end of the day, attendees will understand how to best ensure that their building's obligations are being met and how technological innovation is facilitating the compliance process.
Maintenance Management In FM 	Extract the most value from maintenance contracts and effectively monitor contract performance, while also covering the impact of technology and the move to condition-based maintenance.
Digital Transformation in FM 	What does the digitisation of the FM Industry mean to you? Industry experts will present on the challenges being faced, new technologies on offer and they will discuss how you can embrace the digital tools which are occupying the business environment.
Residential Facilities & FM 	Are you aware of current compliance and regulations pertaining to facility management in residential properties? Have you kept up to date with changes affecting the industry, and do you know what the future of residential facilities management looks like?
